NAMCO BANDAI GAMES AMERICA INC. ANNOUNCES CAPSIZED AVAILABLE NOW FOR XBOX 360

Experience the Fight for Survival on a Mysterious Alien Planet Today on Xbox 360

SAN JOSE, Calif., (July 5, 2013) – NAMCO BANDAI Games America Inc., and indiePub Entertainment, Inc., today announce that the retro-inspired 2D platformer Capsized is now available for download on the Xbox Live® online entertainment network for the Xbox 360 games and entertainment system from Microsoft.

In the futuristic world of Capsized, the player's ship crash-lands on a strange and mysterious planet that is presented in a unique hand-drawn art style immersing players into a captivating yet hostile alien environment. Alone and armed with a grappling hook, jetpack, ship supplies and a diverse arsenal of weaponry, players must navigate through perilous landscapes and fight blood-thirsty creatures and Tribal natives to save their crewmates and escape with their lives.

Capsized features a stimulating mix between third-person-shooter and classic platforming gameplay with innovative physics-based combat that can be played through various game modes; including Story-based Campaign, Death Match, Survival, Time Trials and Armless Fighting (non-weapon combat) modes.

Capsized includes two-player offline co-op action and presents more than a dozen non-linear levels, along with exclusive levels and achievements for Xbox Live players to unlock.

Capsized is available now for download on Xbox Live for Xbox 360 for 800 Microsoft Points, and will also be coming out on the PlayStation®Store for the PlayStation®3 computer entertainment system later this summer (2013).
